THE SUN NEVER SETS ON THE FIGHTING JEEP

IN the bright blistering heat of North Africa as in the blood-soaked swamps of Burma, through Rome's choking mud and the deadly cold of its winter snows... the Jeep does a fighting man's job.

Scrambling over bumpy roads on hair-raising stunts, saving lives, winning huge Axis tanks, like flaming bonfires, in fierce desert fights... a towering officer, strident and supple, plies through sullocking sand storms, the Jeep keeps going day upon day. No wonder the willing Jeep has won the hearts of Allied warriors on every battle front.

WillysOverland's Genius engineers attended the U. S. Quartermaster Corps in designing and perfecting the Jeep adopted by the U. S. Army. The amazing, world-renowned engine that drives it with such power, speed, and flexibility, is an exclusive WillysOverland development.

After the war, when there will be a world-wide word-of-mouth campaign, these men will demand similar advantages in their personal automobiles—advantages that many thousands of WillysOverland owners are enjoying today.

In Support of Those Who Fight

MACLEAN'S presents four messages to the people of Canada on the Fourth Victory Loan. They are by the leaders of the four major political parties represented in the House of Commons.

THE RT. HON. W. L. MACKENZIE KING
Prime Minister of Canada and leader of the Liberal Party

THIS YEAR another generation and another day will be added to Canada's fighting men. The past three years have witnessed the mobilization of our forces and our resources. In a very real sense these years have been the Canada years of preparation—preparation for the hour of combined attack.

In the thousands of war-time activities that have been taking on, each month, as it passed, the Government cannot leave that much toward the expense of the war. Now, as never before, men, machines and money must be concentrated upon attack. Canada's fighting men, who share the dangers and sacrifices of combat, need all the support that their country can give. The Fourth Victory Loan affords the opportunity for that support.

The resource of Canada's strength on the home front is a resource to our readiness to send, and to lend our support to our country. Being a resource contributing to Canada's war effort by contributing savings in Victory Bonds, effective support is given those who fight. That is the main reason for supporting the Victory Loan. Victory and peace depend upon the armed forces.

I appeal to all Canadians to support to the utmost of their power Canada's fighting men.

THE HON. JOHN BRACKEN
Leader of the Progressive Conservative Party

UNDER the chairmanship of Mr. Spence, Canada has organized voluntary savings in a manner that does credit to the many patriotic people throughout Canada who have contributed their time and energy to this work.

According to the estimate of the Minister of Finance in his Budget Speech of March 3 Canada will spend $4,000,000,000 in the coming year, or more than twice as much as the Dominion Government spent in long seven years following Confederation. It is a huge amount that the Government requires for its war and defense needs.

In the past year approximately half of our Budget expenditures were raised by taxation and an attempt was made to raise the balance by War Savings Certificates and Loans. But from reading the Budget Speech you will see that during the past fiscal year an amount of $833,000,000 was borrowed from the Bank of Canada and the chartered banks. This fact alone should stir Canadians on their efforts in an endeavor to divert a greater portion of the income of the nation to savings in the form of subscriptions to Victory Loans.

It is our responsibility as Canadians to give the latest possible support to the Government through the National War Finance Committee in this emergency. We must not fail to realize the critical need of greatly increased savings. We must expand the purchase of War Savings Certificates and Savings. We must get behind the new Victory Loan Campaign which is planned for the coming year. I am not a member of the Government but as a citizen of this country I agree with all the power in my command that each of us as Canadians owes the paramount importance of meeting this challenge.

W. J. GOLDWELL, M.P.
President of the Co-operative Federation of Montreal

THESE Government is appealing to the people of Canada for support in the raising of another large war loan. Whether individually or as groups of the method of raising money for the purposes of the war or not, our Parliament has given the authority required of the action to it. It therefore becomes the duty of every good citizen to do the utmost to make the new loan another outstanding success. In time of war, more a policy for the winning of the war has been expressed by Parliament, no more waste in carrying out that policy until Parliament decides to change it.

Let us all, then, as believers in this democratic principle for which this nation, with her allies of the United Nations, fights today, give our united support to the raising of the war loan which the Government needs, and of which Parliament has approved.

I would like to appeal, as Minister of Finance of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, to our leaders throughout Canada to give every assistance in their power to making the new Victory Loan an unqualified success.

JOHN H. BLACKBURN, M.P.
House Leader of the New Credit or New Democracy Party

SOCIAL CREDITERS will support the Victory Loan not because we agree with the present Government's methods of financing—we do not—but rather because Canada must be united in her war effort.

Victory Loans constitute part of the Government's policy of financing the war. The Government is determined to finance the war by the policy of Victory Loans. Canadians should support such Victory Loans.

The Social Credit position as regards the borrowing of debt to finance the war is based on the following:

Money spent on war goods tends to circulate in a price-inflation. Money spent for any kind of goods creates labor and materials to be used to produce more of such goods.

To help save labor and materials, to help avoid inflation, spend sparingly and lend all you can spare.

A Problem in World Sanitation

TIME AFTER time I have loved angry people, and particularly women, saying, "Do you know what I do to that old bitch?"

And under encouragement they have proceeded to describe the terrible things they would do to him if he tell me their heads. Nothing at that sort must happen. There must be no telling of this.

But DMI I suspect on these sanguinary days is a certain sense of killing, most particularly gonorrhea and venereal killing. The mountain-dweller ought to have been shot on a spy device he was caught. Giuseppe Thoma ought to have been shot out of hand, there is a king bed of some mountainous nation and gnomes, who should be shot and marked down now for execution and given no quarter, but, and this story is noble. Michael did not write much after the war, but wanted to know about the lives his father and other child. I asked Friedman what she thought about the war. "I was sure Russia was strong enough to win alone," she said after a few minutes. "But I wish Americans and English would open a Second Front, so that the war could be over sooner." Friedman said I heard from her often on her daughter for days or for months, but if she was worried about them, she didn't allow it.

Pay was usually in kind, and possible to bring a variety of goods. The amount paid per labor day depended entirely on the size of the harvest. "IT TAKES LITTLE EFFORT TO WATCH THE

Shoulder your own share

Over two million Canadians already own Victory Bonds.

But that leaves several million "other fellows" who don't.

Some haven't bought because they can't. Many who can buy, but haven't, will be expected to help share the load this year.

This is the year of attack.

This is the year when every shoulder is needed behind the wheels of Victory.

Those who have bought will be expected to buy more.

Those who bought up to what they thought was the limit, will be expected to raise the limit.

Those who have denied themselves a little, will be expected to deny themselves much.

Those who have previously bought one bond, just to be in the swim, will be expected to buy two bonds or ten, to get into the fight.

Buy as many bonds as you can out of your savings, and then buy more on the instalment plan.

Keep at it!

That's the spirit we expect of our fighters, isn't it?

Watching other fellows fight and work and save won't win the war.

Let's get together and win it — and fast!

the Attack!

VICTORY BONDS

COMING, ALASKA!

Men and Machines Carve Road of Destiny Through Mountains, Mud, and Wilderness

Far out on the Northwest border of the Americas lay Alaska—stepping stone between the hemispheres. On our side of the world was peace—but in the islands of the Orient envious eyes were turned our way. Then came aggression, bent on world conquest.

In a blinding flash we saw that this Alaska was, as some had said, "the most strategic land on earth." And every free man knew that a route must be built through the wilderness to hold this land. A route for armies, and arms... for defense... for offense! Not at our own sweet time, but NOW!

The Alcan Highway, started in a moment of supreme danger, is destined to become a mighty achievement. Victory Road, born of war and dedicated to peace.

Alcan is a busy truck highway now, a road which trucks are helping to build, for truck traffic. Night and day, in the turmoil of construction, husky International Trucks are bearing a gigantic burden, hauling capacity loads of rock and gravel as the highway advances through mountains, swamplands, and timber. They help keep vital supplies moving through wilderness. They haul fuel, repair parts, water, a vast tonnage of mechanical equipment, and food for an army of men.

Truck maintenance is at absolute minimum on a job like the Alcan Highway, and only the toughest of trucks can take it. Once again International Trucks prove their stamina, as they constantly are proving it, day after day, on the highways and battlefronts of the world.
